Privacy Policy for GPal Chrome Extension

Effective Date: June 3, 2025

1. Introduction

GPal is a Chrome extension that enables users to create Google Calendar events from highlighted or typed text using AI. We are committed to protecting your privacy and being transparent about how your data is collected and used.

2. Information We Collect

a. Authentication Information

- When you sign in, we collect your email address and authentication tokens via Google or Firebase Authentication.
- We do not store your password. Authentication is handled securely by trusted providers.

b. Usage Data

- We track how many times you use the "Parse" feature to enforce free-tier limits and monitor usage.
  This data is associated with your account but is never shared with third parties.

c. Subscription Information (Pro Users)

- Payments are securely processed by Stripe.
  We do not collect or store credit card or billing details. All payment information is handled directly by Stripe.

d. Event Text Data

- When you use the extension, the highlighted or typed text is sent to our backend to be parsed into event details.
- Parsed data is used only to create your Google Calendar events and is not stored or reused.

3. How We Use Your Information

We use the collected data strictly to:

- Authenticate your account
- Track usage for free/pro feature limits

- Process Pro subscriptions (via Stripe)
- Convert your input into structured calendar events

We do not sell, rent, or share your personal information with third-party advertisers.

4. Data Storage & Security

- Authentication and usage data are stored securely via Firebase.
- All payment processing is securely managed by Stripe.
- We implement industry-standard security practices to safeguard your information.

5. Data Sharing

We only share your data with third parties as needed to deliver GPal's core functionality:

- Google: Calendar integration and authentication
- Firebase: User authentication and usage tracking
- Stripe: Payment processing for subscriptions

We never share your data with advertisers or external analytics platforms.

6. Your Choices

- You may sign out of the extension at any time.
- You may request deletion of your data by contacting us at gcal.ext2025@gmail.com.

7. Changes to This Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy periodically. If we make significant changes, we will update the effective date and notify users where appropriate.
